MARITIME AMERICA

THE 4-STAR SUPERIOR THEMED HOTEL “BELL ROCK”

BELL ROCK

4-STAR SUPERIOR HOTEL

MARITIME ATMOSPHERE
+ AN EXPEDITION TO THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY
= THE FLAIR OF NEW ENGLAND

Come aboard, follow in the footsteps of the Pilgrim Fathers and discover the Northeast Coast of America. The 35-m lighthouse offers a panoramic view of the hotel complex "Bell Rock". If you don't happen to have a telescope with you, you can just explore the site from below. Stroll through the elegant lobby, sample typical New England cuisine at "Captain's Finest" or some international flavours at the restaurant "Harborside" and then take a dip – with your entire family of explorers – from the "Mayflower" into the Atlantic-blue pool. Your next seafarer experience awaits you in your room, in the form of boat shaped bunk beds, where the young sailors can romp until the captain orders lights out. You can enjoy a fruity cocktail at the bar, discussing maritime manoeuvres as you savour the sense of independence and North American flair.

TO THE BIRTHPLACE OF THE USA

IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF THE PILGRIMS

EMIGRATE TO NEW ENGLAND IN THE “BELL ROCK”

The Pilgrim Fathers were the first English settlers on the Northeast Coast of the United States. They sailed in 1620 in the Mayflower over the Atlantic and founded a settlement at Plymouth in present-day Massachusetts. Although the Pilgrims were not the first settlers in what was to become the USA but they played a major role as pioneers in American folklore.

An exciting era and an experience you wish you could have shared? Well, you can or at least you can follow in the footsteps of the Pilgrim Fathers. A stay at the “Bell Rock” is like an expedition to the Northeast Coast of America in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries.

Sleep like an English lord in the soft beds of our maritime themed suites. You can enjoy best steaks from the Midwest of the USA, tartar Black Angus beef as well as lobster from Maine or tuna tartar. The “Ammolite” restaurant, the exclusive fine dining restaurant in the lighthouse, is even more elegant. And at the “Spirit of St. Louis” bar you can take classic afternoon tea with home-made pastries or a cool drink in the evening to the accompaniment of live music.

The celebrations of seafarers and Pilgrims a few centuries ago are re-enacted at the “Bell Rock”; authentic but with a modern twist. The birthplace of the United States – just round the corner.

After passing through the imposing columned entrance, you will be no less impressed by the LOBBY AND RECEPTION AREA with carefully chosen wooden panelling, large stone tiles and a sweeping manor house staircase leading to your room or suite.

SLEEP LIKE A PRESIDENT Immigration included

In which New England state do you want to sleep? Left and right of the main Boston building are Connecticut, New Hampshire, Maine, Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Vermont with 190 fully air-conditioned rooms and 35 individually themed suites. You don't even need a visa, so immigration is simplicity itself.

LIGHTHOUSE SUITES

One of the six suites in the lighthouse is named after GEORGE WASHINGTON, the first president of the United States. His decisions paved the way towards republican democracy in the USA. Follow in his footsteps and dream big dreams under the American flag in a comfortable box-spring bed.

PRESIDENTIAL SUITES

Duplex luxury

The large presidential suites are spread over two floors. There are twelve of them at the "Bell Rock", in the Connecticut, Massachusetts and Rhode Island buildings. A ship's ladder connects the lower bedroom with its box-spring double bed to the upper level. There is also a living room area with bunk bed, two bathrooms, two separate toilets and a mini-bar.

The dark floor panelling is reminiscent of ship's planks. The dominant colours are white and blue, the colour of the ocean. The free bottle of water and fresh fruit will help visitors find their sea legs. Ship ahoy!

LIGHTHOUSE SUITES

What goes round ...

There are six suites in the lighthouse, all of them round and therefore extra special. Named after major US statesmen like George Washington, Thomas Jefferson or Abraham Lincoln, they offer guests a bedroom with double bed, a children's room with bunk bed, a small balcony, bathroom, separate toilet, flat-screen TV, iHome radio alarm and many presidential details.

"AHOI HEIMAT" BY STEFAN STRUMBEL

The "Ahoi Heimat" lighthouse suite, designed by Black Forest artist Stefan Strumbel, is completely white and is equipped with all modern extras.

JOHN F. KENNEDY

The split-level John F. Kennedy suite at the top of the lighthouse has a panoramic view. Not to be outdone in terms of comfort, it not only offers the conveniences of the other lighthouse suites but also a sauna and whirlpool. JFK would surely have felt at home here.

SUITES

Exclusive and cosmopolitan

PENTHOUSE SUITES

The penthouse suites on the third floor are particularly exclusive. The two en-suite bedrooms with double beds and the living room with a bunk bed can comfortably accommodate six people. The wonderfully soft box-spring beds guarantee sweet dreams. You can also wallow in a hot bath or enjoy the freshness of the complimentary fruit basket left in your room as a welcoming gift.

THEMED SUITES

Our themed suites will take you on a trip around the world. The bedroom with double bed and living room area with a bunk bed offer space for the entire family and are designed down to the smallest detail in Asian, African, Indian, Latin American or Oriental style. You can sleep in snug box-spring beds and there are two flat-screen TVs and a mini-bar.

ROOMS

For sailors and captains

STANDARD ROOMS

Off to the cabins, albeit a luxury version! Our air-conditioned standard rooms have nothing in common with the narrow crew quarters on board a sailing ship. They are generously proportioned with large bathroom, telephone and desk, flat-screen TV and abound with maritime flair. The rooms can accommodate from one to six people.

“COMFORT” ROOMS

The “Comfort” rooms have a balcony or terrace in addition. They can also accommodate up to six guests.

“DELUXE” ROOMS

All “Deluxe” rooms have a separate children’s area with seaworthy bunk bed. The iHome radio alarm and docking station for iPhone will ensure that you don’t sleep in and miss any of the adventure.

A woman with blonde hair and glasses, wearing a dark blue athletic top, is smiling while using a gym machine. In the background, other people are visible on treadmills, and a large red 'B' logo is on the wall.

HEALTHY & BEAUTIFUL

In a welcoming atmosphere!

You prefer to play sport and your partner prefers wellness? No problem, you have the choice, the Fitness & Spa New England at the hotel "Bell Rock" offers both. You can pump iron or do cardio exercises while your partner is enjoying a relaxing sauna and massage. Or vice versa.

NEW ENGLAND FITNESS & SPA

Welcomes sports enthusiasts and wellness fans alike. It has the "Boston Red Sox" Fitness-Club, "Manchester Spinning Club" and "Newport Dance Factory" as well as saunas, steam bath and a huge massage, beauty and wellness range which is open to all Europa-Park Hotel guests.

AN AMERICAN DREAM

FIT FOR NEW WORLDS

GYM, ZUMBA AND THALASSO THERAPY

The long, exciting and sometimes stormy voyage across the Atlantic on the Mayflower must have been quite an ordeal for the Pilgrim Fathers. Those who arrived healthy and fit in the New World, the coast of North America, will have realised just how fortunate they were.

POOL, SAUNA
AND WELLNESS
Indoors or outdoors?
The “Bell Rock” pool area has both – heated,
of course. There are also relaxing saunas and wellness treatments to indulge in.

In our hotel world we also take care of your health and fitness in our modern Fitness & Spa New England. You can do weight training and cardio exercises in the 400-m² gym on the TechnoGym equipment or vibrating PowerPlates. Our fitness coach will be glad to show you how to exercise correctly and healthily. Those who prefer dance and aerobics can attend our Zumba course. Joggers and Nordic walkers should also bring the right shoes with them; sticks are available on loan – discover the beauty of the Rheinau.

Once you have spent your excess energy, you can take a well-earned rest in the Finnish sauna, steam bath or bio-sauna with separate women’s area. Or jump from the “Mayflower” into the pool. There are also massages, sea salt exfoliating algae packs. Invigorated and pampered in this way, you’ll be ready for even the greatest challenge that the New World has to offer!

ATLANTIC TASTE

NEW ENGLAND DELICACIES

LOBSTER, CLAM CHOWDER AND CRANBERRIES

BAR "SPIRIT OF ST. LOUIS":
Sailors' yarns and delicious cocktails galore are available every evening at the "Spirit of St. Louis", to the accompaniment of live piano music.

SERVICE RESTAURANT "CAPTAIN'S FINEST":
The à la carte restaurant serves amongst other delicacies juicy steaks and lobster.

BUFFET RESTAURANT "HARBORSIDE":
Colonial front cooking means that you can have meat, fish or vegetables prepared to your individual taste.

FINE DINING RESTAURANT "AMMOLITE":
A very special fine dining experience awaits you on the ground floor of the lighthouse.

The six New England states have a shared culinary heritage. The first Puritan settlers brought not only their culture but also their food and drinks to the coast of North America.

Five of the six New England states have direct access to the Atlantic. It is therefore hardly surprising that fish like cod or salmon, along with seafood, are staple ingredients of New England cuisine. Above all, however, lobster is available in an abundance and size rarely encountered elsewhere. Clam chowder, a thick shellfish soup, is also popular.

The interior is dominated by hilly landscapes and rustic farms, producing specialities like maple syrup, cranberries and fermented apple cider.

You can satisfy both hunger and thirst at the colonial front cooking restaurant "Harborside", or else at the à la carte restaurant "Captain's Finest" or the fine dining restaurant "Ammolite" in the lighthouse.
